Gov. Beckham's Closing Speech.

Governor Beckham closed the campaign in Louisville Saturday night with four speeches. He was greeted by tremendous crowds, and the indications are now that he will carry the city, which has heretofore been considered doubtful, by several thousand majority. He was heard by about 4,000 people at Fourteenth and Gallagher streets, where he made his first speech. The crowd there was especially enthusiastic. Governor Beckham never showed to advantage. About 3,500 persons heard him at Seventh and St. Catherine streets. Here the Executive confined his remarks to the laboring class, who made up the majority of his audience. He was also heard by about 4,000 persons at Shelby and Oak and Phoenix Hall. All the Democratic clubs in the various sections of the city where the Governor was scheduled to speak were in attendance, and Kentucky's stalwart young Governor was accorded a great ovation everywhere.

A vote for Bryan is a vote to smash the blood-sucking trusts.

Put the X in the circle under the rooster and let it go at that.

REMEMBER the polls are open from six till four. Vote early.

A vote for Beckham is a vote for law and order and peace and prosperity in Kentucky.

A vote for Beckham is a vote against assassination and intimidation. Put the X in the circle under the rooster.

Let every Democrat do his duty and see that his neighbor does likewise. The stay-at-home vote has elected many a political opponent.

Political Notes.

Gov. Roosevelt has completed his campaign. In eight weeks he has traveled 21,500 miles in twenty-four States and made 673 speeches to a total of 2,000,000 people. He breaks all records, including that of Mr. Bryan four years ago, at which time Mr. Bryan traveled 19,000 miles and made 599 speeches.

Chairman Jones' Predictions.

"The fight is won. * * * The Democratic majority in the electoral college will be ample. * * * In a general way, I should say that there will be somewhat of a falling off of Bryan's strength compared with 1896 West of the Mississippi river, and that East of the Mississippi he will make overwhelming gains. * * * The country is aroused as it has not been since the days preceding the civil war." —James K. Jones, Chairman National Democratic Committee.

Another Republican Scheme.

Charles Bruner, a prominent young Democrat, and Sam Crowds, colored, were arrested at Danville by United States Deputy Marshal Con McCarty, charged with violating the Federal election laws. The warrant was sworn out by George Peters, colored. Bruner and Crowds were taken to Lebanon, where they gave bond to appear for trial yesterday. There is great indignation among the Democrats of Boyle county over the arrests, and threats of retaliatory arrests are being made.
